

Will - James T. Gunn
Robertson County, Tennessee
Written March 24, 1882

I, James T. Gunn, Sr., of the County of Robertson and State of Tennessee, of my own free will coming from a sound mind and a well matured plan, do hereby and herein make known the order, disposition, and heirship of all my estate after my death as set forth in this my Will and Testament, to wit -

Item 1st. That my just debts be paid from the proceeds of the sale of land in the 5th Civil District of my County known as the Moon Tract containing about 100 acres. Said land to be sold in such a way and on such terms as my Exr. may think best, and after paying my debts, the residue of money from the sale of said land to be the property of my beloved wife, H. P. Gunn, in fee simple, and at her death if any of said funds be left, that it be used in erecting a substantial rock wall around my burying ground, and if any be left from this, it be equally divided between my children.

Item 2nd. I will that the proceeds from growing crops go to paying the hands employed in making crops, and the balance to go to my wife, H. P. Gunn, and my two sons, J. T. Gunn, Jr. and T. M. R. Gunn, and that also to these, one half the other stock, sheep cattle, hogs, and c., and the other half be equally divided between my 3 children to wit - M. F. Young, Barbary A. Warfield, and A. B. Gunn.

Item 3rd. I will to my daughter, M. F. Young, (200) two hundred acres of land to be laid off from the LaPrade tract to include houses where she now lives, to be on the south and west boundary of said tract and run back east - taking in the (.....) after her death, to the heirs of her body.

Item 4th. I will to my daughter Barbary A. Warfield (200) two hundred acres of land from the north and west boundary of the LaPrade tract - laid off so as to include the Big Spring and the settlement near where Ben LaPrade, colored, now lives, and in such a shape that the remainder of the LaPrade tract be joining and be added to my homeplace.

Item 5th. I will to my son, A. B. Gunn, (200) two hundred acres of land to be laid off from the east side of my home tract so as to include the house and improvements where he now lives.

Item 6th. The balance of my land, including my homestead about 380 acres, I bequeath jointly to my wife, H. P. Gunn who is to have and to exercise a controlling interest, and my two sons, James T. Gunn and T. M. R. Gunn, as homes and for the maintenance of all, and a lot to be a home for my daughter, Barbary A. Warfield, with all the rights and privileges she has had while living with me, to care for her mother, to stay as long as she may wish. After my wife's death, said land of 380 acres to be the joint property of my two sons, James T. Gunn, Jr. and T. M. R. Gunn, and if they die without issue, to be equally divided among my remaining heirs.

Item 7th. I hereby appoint my neighbor, W. Fort as Executor to carry out all the provisions of this my Will. In testimony whereof, I hereunto affix my signature in the presence of the subscribing witnesses, this the 24th day of March 1882. Signed

J. T. Gunn, Sr

Witnessed by Mr. Orndorff and W. D. Fort

Proven in open court in Robertson County, Tn in the July 1891 Court.

James T. Gunn, born 4-30-1804 died June 15, 1891 s/o Thomas & Patty Miles Gunn his wife Harriet P. Gunn, d/o James and Barbara Walker Gunn